

Activities of Ministry of Transport

Hana Krýsová

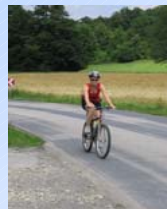

Ministry of Transport
Department for Strategy

Telč

June 25, 2007

Transport Policy of the Czech Republic for the period of 2005-2013

Resolution of the Government of the Czech Republic
No. 882 of 13 July 2005

Transport Policy

- strategic and conceptual goals for transportation and transportation networks
- legislative and economic conditions for providing public transport services as well as for business activities in the transport sector
- Establishment of a transport infrastructure corresponding to growing transport demands
- optimization of transport systems, which will focus on more environmentally friendly transport modes

National Cycling Development Strategy in the Czech Republic

Resolution of the Government of the Czech Republic
No. 678 of 7 July 2004

creation of favourable conditions for cycling

Reduction of emissions from transport sector

State Programme for support of energy conservation and usage of renewable energy sources

A) energy conservation in the field of gears

B) infrastructure

C) organisation of transport

D) consultant services, education and promotion of economical usage of energy for improvement of the environment

Programme for support of vehicles renewal for urban mass transportation

Support of projects of research and development

Support of the usage of alternative fuels

- ✓ building-up of CNG (compressed natural gas) fuel stations
- ✓ research and developement of ecological hydrogen technologies for usage in transport
- ✓ realization and operation of bus with hydrogen fuell cells
- ✓ building-up of trolley-bus routes

Transport safety

- Increase of transport safety and protection of pedestrians and cyclists
- Information campaigns
- Speed, safety belts, seat shells, safety helmets, visibility, alcohol, safety distance, first aid, etc.
- Education